MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

California Turtle & Tortoise Club members enjoy the following benefits and privileges:

- Subscription to the Tortuga Gazette, the CTTC newsletter featuring articles on turtle and tortoise health, care, conservation, Club activities, and other turtle-related stories and news items.

- Regular Chapter meetings with programs featuring guest speakers, video and slide presentations, question-and-answer sessions, and a chance to socialize and share information with other Club members.

- Access to turtle and tortoise care and adoption information at the meetings. Some Chapters have extensive book and video lending libraries.

- Ability to participate in Chapter activities such as shows and exhibits, field trips and symposia, and to vote in Chapter elections.

- Knowledge that they are supporting CTTC’s turtle and tortoise rescue, adoption, conservation and public education programs.

The California Turtle & Tortoise Club Executive Board coordinates Club-wide activities and prints CTTC publications. The mailing address for the CTTC Executive Board and the Tortuga Gazette Editorial Office is:
